
2016 National Ocean Exploration Forum Breakout Group Registration

Participants in the 2016 National Ocean Exploration Forum registered in one of six Breakout Groups, two groups for exploration campaigns in each of three geographic areas: Gulf of Mexico, U.S. Arctic, and Southeast U.S. Atlantic Bight. Over the course of the two-day forum proceedings, participants moved among the Breakout Groups, shaping the discussion of groups other than those in which they were registered. For this reason it is not possible to present a full list of participants in the discussions of each group.

Following are lists of Forum participants and the Breakout Groups in which they were provisionally registered. Boldface names are those of group leaders.

U.S. Arctic Breakout Groups

Mayer, School of Marine Science and Ocean Engineering/Center for Coastal and Ocean Mapping

Herr, Office of Naval Research

Clough, National Science Foundation

Ardila-Jimenez, Monmouth University

Blake, Yale University

Clark, Marine Technology Society

Curran, Lockheed Martin

Fahy, US Naval War College

Ferrini, Lamont-Doherty Earth Observatory of Columbia University
